PIAZZA CLAY FLOOR TILES

Made in the USA

OUR HISTORY SPEAKS FOR ITSELF

In continuous operation since 1875, our history and the thousands of projects contained within it speaks for itself. We have created works of art for buildings and homes throughout the world. Historical landmarks such as Stanford university and the Ronald Regan Presidential library, proudly display fine examples of our products.

Our Piazza clay floor tiles are manufactured using carefully selected clays and shale's from our company owned rich clay reserve located in Lincoln, California. Using today's technology and time-honored production methods the clay is then extruded, dried, and kiln-fired, resulting in a tile that looks as if it were hand made, reminiscent of a bye-gone era.

In addition to our Piazza clay floor tile, we also offer a roof tile collection that is available in a variety of complementary colors, shapes and sizes.

COLOR

Rich fire flashed colors and unique finishes are what Gladding McBean Piazza clay floor tiles are known for. Our floor tile provides blends of soft warm natural hues that compliment our roof tile collection. Our tile collection ranges from light to dark reds, soft gold's, warm browns and deep purples that come alive during the fire flashing process. This process ensures the color richness is throughout each tile.

TEXTURE

Our tile is available in a Smooth or Antico finish. Smooth has a clean finish that enhances the rich fire flashed colors and natural character of the tile. Antico is tumbled to give it a rustic, aged appearance that softens the color.

PATTERN

Gladding McBean Piazza clay floor tile is available in a variety of sizes. This provides design flexibility to create several interesting patterns essential in creating a striking focal point for any area, indoors or out.
